Scott Steingraber
Owner and Winemaker of Kriselle Cellars

Scott Steingraber, owner and winemaker of Kriselle Cellars, is passionate about his craft. Scott began making wine over 25 years ago and through his exploration of wine, he discovered the incredible viticulture area of the Rogue Valley Appellation in Southern Oregon. His drive to create exceptional wines of exquisite character and quality followed that discovery and forged a new path for Scott. He transitioned from his career in engineering technical bridges into a life of wine.

Kriselle Cellars was launched in 2009 and very quickly became known for his distinctive, premium hand-crafted wines. Scott's creations at Kriselle Cellars are enjoying a reputation of excellence, garnering scores and awards from the most prestigious reviewers and competitions both nationally, and internationally.

France is a special place for Scott and his two partners in the wine business: His wife Kris, who oversees the ranch and vineyard and Nora Lancaster, who directs business development. They are all eager to share wine and time with you onboard AmaKristina in spring 2025, where you will have the opportunity to appreciate Scott's beautiful wines from Kriselle Cellars alongside their local counterparts along the River Rhone.
